

TCS CAMPING

Reglement for the use of TCS campsites

The references to persons relate to persons of both genders without any distinction.

Art. 1 Purpose and scope

The present regulations define the use of TCS campsites operated by Touring Club Switzerland (TCS) or TCS Training & Freizeit AG, a subsidiary company fully owned by TCS (Touring Club Switzerland).

They apply to all campers and to any person who is on a TCS campsite.

For seasonal campers, additional conditions supplement the present regulations.

Art. 2 Management

TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG is represented by its campsite manager. The manager is responsible for the state of the premises and the installations and for enforcement of the regulations. His/her orders and instructions should be strictly complied with.

Art. 3 Admission

The campsite is open to everybody. The management may refuse admission to the campsite without giving any reason.

Persons having no legal domicile are not admitted. No person is allowed to be domiciled on the campsite.

The management is entitled to request a certificate of domicile. Young people between 16 and 18 years of age who have booked a stay must present a written authorization signed by a legal representative for their stay upon their arrival on the campsite. Without such an authorization, The TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG is not bound by the terms of contract and is entitled to rent the object booked by the young person to another guest without any compensation. Young people under 16 years of age are only admitted if they are accompanied by an adult who is responsible for them.

Art. 4 Installations

The term installation covers a tent, caravan or camping car without any distinction.

Fences of any kind, alterations to the nature of the ground and any other fixed installations are prohibited. (e.g. dog fences). Channels may only be dug with the express prior permission of the management and according to its instructions and must be filled in before departure.

Art. 5 Tariffs, Tax, Discount, Arrival and Departure

The currently valid tariffs, opening hours, safety rules and emergency telephone numbers are displayed at the reception. The full price of the stay is payable before the stay begins and must be paid no later than the day before departure. The manager is also entitled to request down payments.

Each visitor must register at the reception upon arrival and produce a valid identity document.

In order to benefit from a "member's" discount, the customer must produce his/her card upon arrival without being requested to do so. During the high season an additional night will be invoiced if the departure is after 12.00 noon. Departures and arrivals are not allowed between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.

Art. 6 The site, allocation and dimensions

The management allocates the site taking into account the camper's wishes as far as possible. When reception is not staffed, the camper has the possibility of occupying a site temporarily but without acquiring the right to stay on that site definitively.

Art. 7 Unoccupied tents, caravans and camping cars

Pitching or parking unoccupied installations on TCS campsites is only authorized with the management's permission on the sites designated for this purpose and subject to payment of a fee. The TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG does not accept any liability for any possible damage.

Art. 8 Visitors

It is imperative that visitors to a TCS campsite be reported to reception. The charges for visitors must be paid in advance. No visitors are allowed between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.

Customers are responsible for paying the visitors' charge and for ensuring that the latter comply with the regulations.

Art. 9 Pets

Pets are admitted in principle. A maximum of two animals are allowed per installation. Their owners must ensure that they do not bother the other campers and that they do not soil the campsite or the amenities. Animals are not allowed into the toilet or washroom areas. It is not allowed to leave animals without supervision or shut in on the campsite. Cats and dogs must be kept on a leash. Fences of any kind (e.g. dog fences) are prohibited.

Art. 10 Night-time silence

Night-time silence must be observed from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m. No activity causing noise is tolerated during this period. In certain cases during the high season, night-time silence will begin at 11 p.m. if the manager decides accordingly.

Art. 11 Hygiene, order and rubbish

The entire area of the campsite and especially the sanitary facilities must always be kept in clean condition. A container must be placed under the sanitary discharges of caravans. Waste water and the content of portable toilets must be emptied at the installations and sinks provided for it. It is strictly prohibited to dispose of waste water on the ground, in the grids of water discharges or directly into public or private waters.

Rubbish and waste of any kind have to be disposed of at the collecting points by giving particular attention to the waste separation. Unless there is a specially designated place to wash or clean the car is prohibited.

Art. 12 Fire

Open fires and campfires are prohibited outside of the locations specifically provided for this purpose. Fireworks are strictly prohibited.

Art. 13 Electrical and gas installations

The TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG is responsible for these installations up to the connection box.

The camper is responsible for the electrical and gas installations from the connection box to his/her caravan, caravan car or tent. These installations must comply with the legal requirements. The camper shall be held liable if any damage is caused by these installations.

Art. 14 Vehicle traffic

Vehicle traffic is limited to what is strictly necessary and to a maximum speed of 10 km per hour. All traffic is prohibited within the boundaries of the campsite during the night-time silence period. Campers returning after 10 p.m. must leave their vehicle outside the campsite. (Art. 10)

On pedestrian campsites which are vehicle-free, traffic is allowed only for unloading and loading during arrival and departure.

Art. 15 Trading and advertising

It is prohibited to engage in any gainful occupation or trade and to sell goods or rent out tents, caravans and caravan car. Sales campaigns and advertising are also prohibited.

Art. 16 Damage, liability and obligation to report

Campers and visitors are liable for any damage caused deliberately or through negligence to third parties, to the TCS or to TCS Training & Freizeit AG.

Neither nor TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG nor the manager nor the campsite owner will accept any liability whatsoever, particularly in the event of theft, loss and damage sustained or caused by the campsite users, the persons staying on the campsite or by third parties. The damage caused by acts of God is treated as damage caused by a third party and shall not entail any liability on the part of TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG or the manager or the campsite owner.

Accidents, damage to the installations and other events must be announced immediately to the management.

Art. 17 Sanctions

Any breach of the present regulations or of additional regulations as well as failure to comply with the manager's instructions or orders shall entitle the management to definitively expel the person to blame from the campsite and the persons who are responsible for him/her.

Expulsion of a camper does not entitle him/her to reimbursement of the rents, charges and taxes paid in advance.

Art. 18 Complaints

The TCS campsites come under the authority of TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG, a subsidiary company fully owned by TCS. TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG shall decide in particular and finally on disputes between the managers and campers.

Complaints in writing are to be sent to: TCS Training & Freizeit AG c/o Touring Club Switzerland, TCS Camping, ch. de Blandonnet 4, PO Box 820, 1214 Vernier.

Art. 19 Place of jurisdiction

For any dispute connected with the rental contract, the stay on the campsite, the present regulations and other regulations or instructions, the place of jurisdiction shall be Geneva. The TCS or TCS Training & Freizeit AG is also authorized to institute legal proceedings against the camper at the court of the latter's domicile or at the court of the place where the campsite is located.

Art. 20 Legal provisions to be observed

In addition to the present regulations, all the federal, cantonal and municipal legal provisions, in particular those that relate to campsites and environmental protection, as well as any local-authority or police byelaws, must be observed.

Art. 21 General consideration for the other users

In addition to the special provisions that regulate the activities and use of the campsite, campers are required to respect the other users. In general, any behaviour that disturbs other campers is prohibited. Activities that cause disturbing emissions (noise, unpleasant smells, smoke, etc.) or that cause a danger for the installations and amenities are not allowed.

Valid from July 2026
